

RULES FOR THE SUPERVISION OF MINORS

THE LIBRARY IS A PUBLIC PLACE, AND WE ASK OUR VISITORS TO RESPECT OTHERS BY ABIDING BY THE FOLLOWING RULES FOR THE SUPERVISION OF MINORS:

1. Parents, caregivers and teachers are responsible for the behavior of children under their supervision.
2. Children under the age of 9 must be accompanied by a parent or responsible caregiver 12 years old or older.
3. A responsible adult must directly accompany preschool children at all times. Library staff cannot assume responsibility for children at any time.
4. If an unattended child is in the library at closing time, police will be notified and asked to pick up the child. Library staff is not permitted to offer the child transportation home.

Learn more about our policies @
VENCOLIBRARY.ORG

